

SOUTH RICHMOND

SOUTHSIDE DEMOCRATIC CLUB MEETS TO-NIGHT

Will Discuss Question of Routing Hull Street Cars to Broad Street.

DAMAGE SUIT ON TRIAL TO-DAY

Mrs. Fannie C. Farrell Seeks $12,000 Compensation for Injuries Received When She Fell From Step of Broad and Main Street Car.

Important business will be transacted at the regular meeting of the South Richmond Democratic Club, which will be held to-night at 8:30 o'clock in the Fraternal hall. Among the matters to be discussed will be the street car question, which was taken up recently in the City Council. Since the routing of the Hull Street cars along Fourteenth Street over the Mayo Bridge, it has been a knotty problem for Southsiders.

The first plan offered before the Council was to run every other Hull Street car through Seventh Street to Fourteenth and Main Streets, the present terminus of the Hull Street line, and to route every other Hull Street car around the Broad Street loop at Seventh Street. This was made to suit the residents of Woodland Heights and Forest Hill on the ground that their ten minute schedule would be interfered with. The Virginia Railway and Power Company also said that it was impracticable.

A second proposition, and one that has met with the approval of a number of persons, is that the company should transfer from the Forest Hill to the Hull Street line at Seventh Street, in order that anyone working in South Richmond and coming from Forest Hill would not have to pay two fares. They would have to walk three blocks, however, and it has been suggested that a shuttle service be maintained between the two lines.

To Try Damage Suit.

The Virginia Railway and Power Company is the defendant in a suit brought by Mrs. Fannie C. Farrell, which will be heard to-day in Judge Court, Part II. Damages in the sum of $12,000 are asked by the plaintiff for injuries sustained in boarding a Broad and Main car on March 5, 1913. Mrs. Farrell was badly injured, it is alleged, from being knocked down by passengers alighting from the car through the entrance door. Negligence is claimed on the part of the company's employees in allowing the wrong exit to be used.

Picnic to Seashore.

A large number of Southside citizens and their families went on the excursion run yesterday by the Sunday schools of Cowardin Avenue Christian and Asbury Methodist Churches to Ocean View. The train left Main Street Station at 8 o'clock on Monday morning, and the return trip was begun at 6:30 o'clock in the evening.

Twelve Years in Prison.

Thomas Bradley, colored, was convicted by a jury in the Chesterfield Circuit Court yesterday of the murder of Carrie Smith, also colored, and was sentenced by Judge Robert G. Southard to serve twelve years in the State Penitentiary. The Smith woman was shot several months ago at her home on the Petersburg Turnpike. According to witnesses, she and Bradley had quarreled and she had been in a party. She fled from him to her room, looking in the door. Bradley fired five times through the door, killing the woman almost instantly.

BLOODSHED OVER IF CARRANZA CAN CARRY OUT PLANS

lly, complete quiet has prevailed here to-day.

A number of revolutionary troops occupy a position at Tulyahualco, a village not very far from the capital, but no attempt has been made by them to enter Mexico City, as they have been ordered by the Northern leaders to suspend all operations.

General Jose Refugio Velasco received the appointment of Minister of War early this morning and was sworn in at 11 o'clock. It was expected that the other ministerial offices would be filled later in the day.

Huerta was accompanied on his departure by a strong escort of the Twenty-ninth Mexican Federal Infantry. This is the regiment which has been renowned for its loyalty to the former dictator, and which formed his special guard at the National Palace.

PEACE COMMISSIONERS LEAVE CAPITAL CITY

El Paso, Texas, July 16.—The peace commissioners who will invite the Constitutionalists to take possession of Mexico City left the capital to-day for Guadalupe, said unofficial advices received here to-night.

General Alvaro Obregon has established headquarters at Guadalupe, which is only fifteen hours by rail from the capital. Fifteen thousand troops, 5,000 from each division of the Constitutional army, will enter Mexico City simultaneously, according to Constitutional officials here.

This plan, it was pointed out, would prevent jealousy between the three divisions of the army. It was predicted that each division commander, Villa, Obregon and Gonzalez, would lead his own command into the capital. After military rule has been established in Mexico City, the other troops in the three divisions will visit the capital. If this plan is carried out, more than 50,000 Constitutional soldiers will be quartered in Mexico City within a few weeks.

TROOPS IN CHIHUAHUA

FOR RECUPERATION "There is no ground for the belief that my troops are in Chihuahua for any other purpose than recuperation," said General Villa to-day in Juarez.

"I expect to take my troops toward Mexico City in a few days." In reply to a question whether it was true that there are still some differences among the Constitutionalists, General Villa said he knew of none.

Word was received at Villa's headquarters of the death to-day from typhoid fever of General Toribio Ortega, in Chihuahua City. He was regarded as Villa's favorite commander, and the Northern forces called him the "honorable Ortega."

General Eugenio A. Benavides, commander of the famous Zaragoza brigade of Villa's division, arrived in Juarez to-day from Chihuahua City on a special train. He also has typhoid fever. American military authorities have granted an informal request made by the Villa officials to permit Benavides to enter an El Paso hospital.

New President of Mexico

FRANCISCO CARRANZA.

ARMY OFFICIALS WARNED NOT TO MEET MEXICANS

Garrison Wants All Dealings With Army of Factions Left to State Department.

Washington, July 16.—Secretary Garrison to-day telegraphed Brigadier-General Bliss, commander of the American troops on the border, ordering American officers to refrain from participating in any meetings or conferences with Mexican officers of any faction.

Mr. Garrison wired General Bliss that he had read newspaper reports, saying that an American commander had met a Mexican officer on the International Bridge at El Paso. He took occasion, however, in his telegram, to point out the danger of misunderstanding that might result from such meetings.

"No matter what the purpose," said Mr. Garrison to-day, "such meetings would be misinterpreted. Furthermore, I believe it is the duty of the United States to have dealings with any of the Mexican factions to the agents of the State Department."

The secretary's action was prompted by a news dispatch from El Paso, saying that General Bliss had given orders to his troops at Fort Bliss, near the center of the International Bridge, while pedestrians were prevented from crossing, and another man, veiled by the darkness, presumably General Villa, was seen moving to the center of the bridge.

Mr. Garrison said he did not believe Colonel Bell had conferred with any of the Mexicans, but thought it advisable, nevertheless, to caution all his officers so that meetings of such a character could not possibly occur.

The dispatch caused more anxiety among Constitutionalists here, who have privately asserted their belief that the United States showed more or less sympathy toward General Villa in his quarrel with General Carranza. Secretary Garrison is determined that army officers shall be in no way drawn into such a position of embarrassment.

VILLA GIVES DINNER TO NEWSPAPER MEN

Juarez, July 16.—Up to a late hour to-night, General Francisco Villa had no communication from First Chief Carranza which would throw any light upon the attitude he would assume toward Carranza's government, nor had Mr. Carranza any intimations as to whether he had been officially notified regarding the change in politics in Mexico City. General Villa refused to say anything further regarding what the Constitutionalists might do.

He was busy all day with representatives of clothing manufacturers, agents of American supply houses, representatives of coal companies, etc., providing for his troops in the field and for their movement by rail, just as though Huerta were still posing as president of the republic, and further fighting to depose him was on the tapis.

Villa gave a dinner to-night to the newspaper men of El Paso and to the representatives of news associations and American newspapers and magazines. Among the guests were John T. McCutcheon, the cartoonist; Frederick Palmer, the magazine writer, both of whom are here looking for material for future cartoons or magazine articles.

At Carranza headquarters it was said that nothing had been received from Mr. Carranza, who is in Monterey, regarding the change in politics.

LARGE WATERY PIMPLES ON FACE

Began to Itch, Rubbing Made Them Worse, Festered and Came to Head, Could Not Rest. Used Cuticura Soap and Cuticura Ointment. Trouble Gone.

Terry, Miss.—"When I first noticed the trouble it was fine pimples which began to itch on my entire person, but my face seemed to be more affected than other parts. I would rub them which would make them itch much worse. Then I began to scratch and this caused them to become large and form watery pimples. They festered and came to a head, then they burst and became sores. On account of the itching at night I could not rest well."

"After using skin lotions they would heal a little, then break out again. After about a month my sister told me about Cuticura Soap and Ointment. I used water as warm as I could bear and made a lather with Cuticura Soap, bathed then dried and applied the Cuticura Ointment which gave relief at once. I kept on using them and in a month's time the trouble was entirely gone. Cuticura Soap and Ointment had cured me." (Signed) Mrs. Ella A. Hunter, Jan. 31, 1914.

Samples Free by Mail

For red, rough, chapped and bleeding hands, itching, burning palms, and painful finger-ends with shapeless nails, a one-night Cuticura treatment works wonders. Soak hands, on retiring, in hot water and Cuticura Soap. Dry, anoint with Cuticura Ointment and wear soft bandages or old, clean gloves during the night. Although Cuticura Soap (25c) and Cuticura Ointment (50c) are sold by druggists and dealers everywhere, a sample of each with 32-p. Skin Book will be sent free upon request. Address post-card: "Cuticura, Dept. T, Boston."

garding the change from Huerta to Carranza, in Mexico City. A press dispatch from Monterey said that Mr. Carranza refused to discuss the matter with newspaper correspondents.

PRACTICAL AGREEMENT ON COTTON FUTURES BILL

Washington, July 16.—Practical agreement on a cotton futures measure, following in general the provisions of the Lever bill to levy a prohibitive tax on gambling transactions, but embodying also the section of the Smith bill which would bar from the mails quotations and other information connected with illegal speculation, was reached to-day by House and Senate conferees.

The conference measure follows in general recommendations of cotton experts of the Department of Agriculture, who are called into consultation.

Great Troop Movement.

Monterrey, July 16.—The greatest troop movement in the history of the Constitutional army was put under way to-day, when General Pablo Gonzalez left Saltillo with the remainder of his forces there for San Antonio and the south. Sixty-eight trains were required to transport the troops, which included infantry, cavalry and artillery.

HUERTA AND BLANQUET PASS ON SPECIAL TRAIN

Vera Cruz, July 16.—The special train conveying General Huerta and Blanquet from Mexico City passed through Cordoba at 2:30 P. M., taking the route to Puerto Mexico.

CARRANZA WILL RETIRE

Washington, July 16.—The State Department was informed to-night by Francisco Carranza, successor to General Huerta as Provisional President of Mexico, that he intended to retire in favor of General Carranza. All that Carranza asks is the proclamation of a general amnesty, and the assurance that protection will be given to the property of those who have been fighting the Constitutionalists.

Jose Castellat, former member of the Mexican Senate, called at the State Department to-night to present Carranza's views, which were expressed in a personal telegram received through Freepoint and the adjoining towns this evening. Dr. Carranza was deluged with more than a score of offers from the wealthiest citizens of Nassau County, who wish to go on her bond.

More than $150,000 in cash was offered to the doctor during the evening. Every one of his friends insisted that an offer be accepted as surety for Mrs. Carranza's appearance.

One millionaire, who is considered the wealthiest of Nassau County citizens, offered a certified check for $50,000.

Two men who will probably go on Mrs. Carranza's bond are Smith Cox, former supervisor of the town of Hempstead, and Ernest Randall, real estate man. They offered to go her bond for an unlimited amount.

Each offer was accompanied by expressions of faith in her innocence of any participation in the death of Mrs. Bailey.

LIND DECLINES TO TALK

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) Duluth, Minn., July 16.—"Events and results will show for the administration and for the nation," said John Lind to-day, when asked what he thought of Huerta's resignation.

"I am not in a position to talk. Let the Republican leaders in Washington, who have expounded the ouster of Huerta, do the talking. Their continued lamentations over the passing of Huerta's regime of privilege, loot and murder will not mislead the people."

Mr. Lind is here on business.

RESINOL

stops itching instantly!

The moment Resinol Ointment touches any itching skin, the itching stops and healing begins. With the aid of Resinol Soap, it quickly removes all traces of eczema, poison-ivy, heat-rash, tetter, ringworm, pimples or other tormenting, disfiguring eruption, leaving the skin clear and healthy. It is equally good for sunburn, insect-bites, red, rough hands, and dandruff.

Resinol has been prescribed by doctors for 19 years. All druggists sell Resinol Ointment (30c and $1.00), and Resinol Soap (25c). For trial size free, write to Dept. 2-S, Resinol, Baltimore, Md. Beware of useless "substitutes."

MANSLAUGHTER CHARGE AGAINST MRS. CARMAN

Nassau County Grand Jury Decides to Return Indictment To-Day in Murder Case.

WILL BE ADMITTED TO BAIL

More Than Score of Offers by Wealthy Citizens to Go on Bond of Woman Held in Connection With Killing of Mrs. Bailey.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) Freeport, N. Y., July 16.—The Nassau County grand jury decided late this afternoon to return an indictment charging manslaughter in the first degree against Mrs. Florence Conklin Carman, the beautiful Freeport woman accused of killing Mrs. Louise Duryea Bailey in Dr. Edwin Carman's office on Thursday of June 30.

The punishment for such a crime is imprisonment for not more than twenty years. District Attorney Smith, although declining to make public the decision of the grand jury, declared himself quite satisfied with the result of that body's deliberation. And even Dr. Carman himself, despite his evident disappointment that any indictment should be decided upon, declared that things might have been worse.

Justice Van Sicken will receive the indictment to-morrow, dismiss the grand jury, and arraign Mrs. Carman. It is believed that bail will be fixed at $15,000, or thereabouts. Immediately thereafter Mrs. Carman will be taken by her husband to some quiet mountain resort, where she will stay until the time when she will face a jury.

DELEGED WITH OFFERS FROM WEALTHY CITIZENS

When the report that Mrs. Carman could be indicted to-morrow spread through Freeport and the adjoining towns this evening, Dr. Carman was deluged with more than a score of offers from the wealthiest citizens of Nassau County, who wish to go on her bond.

More than $150,000 in cash was offered to the doctor during the evening. Every one of his friends insisted that an offer be accepted as surety for Mrs. Carranza's appearance.

EFFORT TO PERFECT CLAYTON TRUST BILL

Some Progress Reported and Hoped to Have Measure Ready Early Next Week.

COMMITTEE IS HARD AT WORK

Proposed Interstate Trade Commission Legislation Again Is Under Discussion in Senate—Term "Unfair Competition" Criticized and D

Washington, July 16.—Another strenuous effort was made to-day by the Senate Judiciary Committee to perfect the Clayton antitrust bill. Some progress was reported, and it is hoped to have the measure ready early next week.

While the committee was at work on the Clayton bill the interstate trade commission bill again was under discussion in the Senate. Senator McCumber, North Dakota, insisted that the term "unfair competition" was improper, and that the proper phrase to use was the stifling of competition by unfair methods. Senator Williams agreed with him.

Senator Sterling, South Dakota, said the term "unfair competition" was grossly indefinite, and certain to unsettle business just at a time when the business world had learned the meaning by court interpretation of the Sherman antitrust law. He proposed an amendment conferring on the courts the power to enforce or to suspend the commission's orders.

WORDS ESTABLISH

Senator Newlands replied that the words "unfair competition" established a sufficient rule of action for the commission's guidance, and that it was desirable to give the commission all the freedom from the courts that could be given constitutionally.

Senator Brandegee bitterly attacked the proposed legislation as "half-baked," and said the country was afraid to attempt to find out anything about it.

NEWS SENT BY BOALT WITHOUT FOUNDATION

Washington, July 16.—Rear-Admiral Badger reported to-day that sensational news dispatches sent from Vera Cruz by Fred L. Boalt, an American writer, charging that "the law of flight" had been applied to Mexican prisoners by an American naval officer, had been found without foundation by a court of inquiry. Secretary Daniels directed the investigation, while Secretary Garrison's order for the cancellation of Boalt's correspondent's credentials and his deportation was held in abeyance.

The findings of the court were described in this statement by Acting Secretary Roosevelt, of the Navy Department.

"The Navy Department has received a dispatch from Rear-Admiral Badger, stating the investigation of the allegations made by Fred L. Boalt, a newspaper correspondent at Vera Cruz of the Newspaper Enterprise Association, has been concluded.

"The inquiry was exhaustive and examined into every phase of the charges. It showed conclusively that the statements were false and that under no circumstances or at no time was the so-called 'law of flight' applied at Vera Cruz by the naval forces of the United States. Admiral Badger reports that he will forward the proceedings and records to Washington by the next mail. The acting Secretary of the Navy is highly gratified, but not in the least surprised at the results of the investigation.

"The finding exonerates Ensign William A. Richardson, of the battleship Arkansas, who was named by Boalt as authority for his stories.

Perfect Service

During the month of May, 1914, each one of the three (3) through daily limited trains of the Atlantic Coast Line, between New York and Jacksonville, Fla., reached Jacksonville on time 29 out of the 31 days. In other words, of the 93 arrivals, 87 were on time. This figures out 87,696 miles (or three and one-half times the distance around the globe) of perfect service during the month.

The heavy traffic to the Confederate Veterans' Reunion at Jacksonville, lasting a week or more, during the month of May, makes this performance a very creditable one. The punctuality of its service, combined with the vigilance of its employees, stamp the
